The Raymond family founded its eponymous vineyards and established their 90-acre Rutherford estate in 1970. Today the estate is owned by Jean-Charles Boisset and consists of 300 acres in Rutherford, Jameson Canyon, and St. Helena. This beautiful wine is made from a blend of fruit grown in Oakville, Rutherford, St. Helena, and Yountville. It has aromas of black olive tapenade, black cherry, cassis, and espresso bean with silky soft tannins and flavors of pipe tobacco, black raspberry, black plum, and bright red cherry.
